FOREWORD

RHS—August, 1962. The candle flared brightly as the doors were flung open to greet a new school year. Many improvements had been made to create within the students an amiable attitude for education. A notable improvement was the new chemistry and physics laboratory which rendered possible more and better experiments with greater convenience for the pupils. The foreign language laboratory made it possible for one to improve his recitation by hearing a recording of his own voice and by listening to corrective criticisms offered by the class. Many new faces were seen in the halls. Some belonged to transfer students from other cities, and others belonged to new additions to the faculty. As the year progressed, the students' interests turned from football, basketball, and track to the new competitive sport, baseball. Baseball games drew many spectators and offered a wonderful chance for the large number of participants to improve their skills and sportsmanship.

For the juniors, sophomores, and freshmen, the end of the school year brought a new spring, the anticipation of summer vacation, and another candle slowly melting to mark the close of an ordinary school year, but for the seniors it marked the beginning of a whole new way of life.

ROBINILLO STAFF USES NATURAL COLOR,

Staff editors for the 1962-63 ROBINILLO were, First row: P. Mickey, J. Ewing, N. Lowrance, D. Smith, M. Culver, S. Stahl. Second row: Mr. Ronald Leathers, B. Gullet, S. York, S. Montgomery, N. Calvert, C. Mieure, J. McCrory.

Many hours of work and planning were put into the preparation of the 1963 ROBINILLO by the thirty-three members of the staff. Under the supervision of Mr. Ronald Leathers, the members worked very hard to bring the students of RHS a memorable account of the activities of the 1962-63 school year.

This year the staff was relieved of financial difficulties; thus, enabling them to devote more time on preparation of the ROBINILLO and add a few more pages to the book.

Several changes brought about modernization and improvement of the annual. The yearbook was printed by one of the nation's leading publishing companies. For the first time readers could view full-colored pictures. The annual Signature Dance was held at the end of August when the yearbook was distributed. This change to a summer delivery of the ROBINILLO made it possible to include the entire range of activities for the year.

Photographers, Paul Mickey and Dick Toliver, worked bard this year acquiring pictures for the yearbook.

DEDICATION

On November 7, 1962, the students and staff of Robinson High School mourned the death of Miss Glenadine Weaver, a teacher who served our school for twenty-seven years. As a home economics teacher and the sponsor of the Future Homemakers of America, Miss Weaver unselfishly gave her time and ideas to projects beneficial to our school, and despite her many duties, she willingly contributed her special talents and knowledge for the improvement of numerous faculty, administrative, and community functions. Miss Weaver set an example for her students, inspiring them to appreciate and strive for finer quality in their work. Her many friends on the faculty knew her as a cheerful and devoted colleague.

Robinson High School owes its gratitude to Miss Weaver, who so enriched the school with her kindness and dedication.

ADMINISTRATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. Carl Zwermann

Members of the Board of Education of Central Community Unit No. 2 have spent considerable time and effort in providing the students of our unit with the very best educational advantages and opportunities.

The Board of Education sets the policies of our school system and with the cooperation of the administration and faculty these policies govern our educational program.

This past year, under the leadership of President Carl Zwermann, steps have been taken to improve our curriculum and building facilities.

Bayard Heath, Jr. Paul Murray Martin Glenn Weger

SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. Forest Shoulders has spent a total of twenty-nine years in the field of education, sixteen of these in the Robinson school unit. In the Robinson area, Mr. Shoulders has served as classroom teacher, coach, high school principal, and unit superintendent. Mr. Shoulders obtained his undergraduate degree in education from Eastern Illinois University. He holds the M.S. in Ed. degree from Indiana State College.

Mr. Shoulders gave staff members the following statement:

is a reflection of your years enrolled in Robinson High School.
It is my hope that you, the students, will look back on the pleasant memories that you have. I wish to congratulate the students, faculty and ROBINILLO staff for their successful endeavors in the school year of 1962-63. May the class of 1963 continue to uphold the rich traditions established by the many graduates who have gone before."

The office of the superintendent is the organizational center for Robinson Community Unit School District #2 Assisting Mr. Shoulders in the complicated matters of school finance, public relations, employee records, and various internal responsibilities is Mrs. Norma Humphries. Mrs. Humphries came to RHS in the fall of this year. Concerning her responsibilities, she said, "They are confusing, but I enjoy my position very much."

PRINCIPAL

RHS principal, Mr. Carl E. House, has completed three years of service at Robinson High School and thirteen years in the field of education. He secured his BS degree from Southern Illinois University in Carbondale. His MS degree was earned at the University of Ilunois in Urbana Mr. House was previously associated with the Kardak, Fairmount, Jamaica Consolidated, and Fisher Community school systems. In an interview with members of the ROBINILLO staff Mr. House directed the following message to the seniors:

"By the time you read these lines, your diplomas will have been conferred on you. Please remember that they were given you not only in recognition of the completion of certain academic requirements, but also as an expression of faith and confidence in you as young people to use what you have learned in a manner which will reflect honor and credit upon you, your school, your community, and your nation.

Best wishes to each of you,"

Two familiar faces to the students and faculty of RHS belong to the high school office secretaries. There seems to be no end to the talents and patience of these two ladies as they carry out their regular duties and assist the personnel and students with numerous special problems

In the picture at the right, Mr. House gives instructions to Mrs. Florence Gatton. his secretary, and Mrs. Jean Nash who is in charge of student grade records

GUIDANCE

Mrs. Sarah Mefford has twenty-three years experience in education? She has spent twelve of the years in Robinson and is now the head guidance counselor at RHS. A few of her many duties are assisting student with their class schedules, helping the juniors and seniors to plan their careers, and working with the faculty.

Mrs. Mefford received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Western College for Women in Oxford. Ohio, and she obtained her Master of Arts degree from Indiana State College in Terre Haute, Indiana.

Mr. Jerry Zachary completed his first successful year at Robinson High School as track coach and freshman-sophomore guidance counselor. He graduated from Eastern University in Charleston where he obtained a Bachelor's degree in education and a Master's degree in Education with emphasis in guidance counseling

Several students worked during their study hall periods in the newly created guidance center. The center was constructed by erecting partitions in one of the larger classrooms. These partitions provided separate offices for the two counselors.

JUNIORS

Junior class officers for 1962-63 were Ronnie Mikeworth, President: Susic Mikeworth, Secretary: Mary Lowther, Treasurer.

Pep, pride, patience and perseverance—these were passwords for the members of the junior class as they prepared and presented the 1963 Junior-Senior Prom. The class worked industriously this year to obtain necessary funds for the prom. Clever carnival concessions and an extremely well-produced class play. Time Out For Ginger," were basic projects of juniors.

SENIORS

To be a senior is to possess many joys, many cares, and many interests which range from dating to homework to athletics. A senior is a person of loyalty and tradition whose enthusiasm displays plenty of "that good old senior pep and go." He is also a very busy person struggling under the burden of exams, college applications, and term papers. In the spring a senior is an individual, somewhat weary. who can only smile complacently and say, "I'm graduating in May." All too soon the senior finds himself a graduate viewing many pleasant memories at Robinson High School.

At the carnival the class of 1963 awaited the grand moment when queen Diane Palmer was escorted to the throne by the senior president, Wayne Tracy. Her attendants were Sallie Carrow and Shirley Mendenhall. Sophomores and juniors as well as seniors attended the Career Nights, which were designed for those wishing to learn more about colleges and vocations. In January after much rehearsal, the class of 1963 proudly presented the comical play "A Rocket In His Pocket." Recipients of the honorary DAR and SAR awards were Sue Custis and Joe Sutfin. Finally, graduation time came, bringing with it the hours of practice, the caps and gowns, the good-byes, and all the solemnity of the occasion.

The students who are elected to Senior WHO'S WHO become members of an elite group of RHS graduates. Ten to sixteen boys and girls from each graduating class are elected by the faculty to receive special recognition for highly successful public school careers

Student Council Week was observed

Lyceums provided entertainment

The Student Council is a representative group having its primary interest in promoting better relationships and educational conditions among students, teachers, and administrators.

The council operates the school store for the benefit of the students. The store sells such school items as paper, pencils, crasers, folders, notebooks, and other supplies needed by the students.

The council held numerous pepsi dances after both basketball and football games. The dances were a success as the students listened to popular songs played by several local combos.

The annual Courtesy Week was sponsored again by the Student Council. Different days in the week were designated as days to be especially courteous to janitors, cooks, secretaries, administrators, teachers, and students. The last two days of the week were upper classman dress-up day and under classman dress-up day respectively.

The council took charge at the Christmas dinner, supplying entertainment consisting of dancing in the girls' gym, movies in the auditorium, and games in a classroom.

NEWS 'N' EVERYTHING INFORMS STUI

Supervised by Miss Wilma Nattall, the ferty-five members of the News 'N' Everything have given readers a fine account of the athletics, clubs, and goings on at R.H.S. After one issue of the paper had been completed, work on the next issue began. The business staff again started to sell ads and to check records. The feature, sports, and news staffs started interviewing people, writing stories, constructing headlines, and taking pictures.

Finding it necessary to earn more money for the increased budget, the staff held a bake sale. Members also sold programs at football games and worked at basketball games. They sponsored the checkroom and the cartoon at the carnival.

NING OF ONE-ACT PLAYS

In the autumn the Drama Club had charge of the finale for the carnival, as well as participating in carnival concessions with a cake walk. At Christmas the Drama Club entertained the student body with a one-act play. Money-making projects included ball game concessions, and five one act plays presented in the spring

Robinson High School was represented in the district speech contest as well as in the sectional contest with individual entries, a play ast, and a debate team participating

The end of the year brought the initiation of new Thespians and honors for members who served the club in the past years. The Drama Club deserves a big vote of thanks for producing good en tertainment throughout the year.

Girls' Athletic Association is composed entirely of girls who take an active interest in all kinds of sports.

Vioney-making projects included concessions at basketball games, the sale of Viaroon sweatshirts, and a twist contest at the carnival.

On April 23 an award banquet was held at the Robin-Aire Lanes for girls who attained the number of points necessary to receive an award.

The girls participated in the intramural bowling program at the downtown lanes on Tuesday evenings for seven weeks. The names of twelve outstanding bowlers were sent to the state office of G.A.A. for state competition.

CLUB'S ACTIVITIES

Though the Roman Empire has lain in ruin for many years, the Roman way of life remains interesting to many students at R.H.S. through the efforts of the Latin Club. It familiarizes its members with the Latin language and the customs of the Romans. This year the membership rose to 135 students, under the sponsorship of Miss Wilma Nuttall.

The members were kept busy at their monthly meetings learning to play Latin games and discussing plans for the Roman Banquet.

The Roman Banquet, the formal initiation for new members, was the highlight of the club's yearly activities. After a Roman wedding was portrayed, a feast was held during which the intiates, known as slaves, were subject to the whims and pranks of their masters, old members. The slaves also lid stunts for entertainment.

A quartet practices under the watchful eye of Mrs. Lloyd Attaway

Under the direction of Mrs. Lloyd Attaway the forty-two members of the mixed chorus presented choral entertainment throughout the year. The chorus' active agenda included the annual winter concert, county musical festival, and the spring concert. The Thanksgiving and the Christmas programs during the school day were enjoyed by the entire student body and faculty. Groups from the chorus also gave programs for various organizations in the community.

HILARITY REIGNS AT ANNU

S. Mail advocates touchdowns and sentence diagramming to D. Dix

The three-act play, "A Rocket in His Pocket," was presented by the Senior class on January 22nd and 24th.

As the play unfolds, Oswald Agnew came to Rimrock High—as the first male teacher in ten years only to be completely astounded!

He encounters first the ferocious principal, Mrs. Matchett, an incurable sentence diagrammer and female football coach; a spaceman student; a manhungry co-ed; class steadies; and grim Miss Chisle who heartily disapproves of his approach to grammar

First hour class began with a bang as the spaceman launched a rocket through the roof. Following this event Arlin haphazardly got his thumb stuck in a desk at fire drill time and had to be carried out the nearest exit desk and all. Following this absurd event came Mrs. Matchett hurling threats of dismissal at Agnew—who awkwardly backed into the wasteba-ket.

The students rallied loyally to Mr. Agnew's badly battered banner, saving the day and his job.

Ceach" Mail bursts into the classroom

OUT FOR GINGER"

The fun in "Time Out For Ginger" starts when a young teenage girl decides to go out for football. Any number of complications arise: the father's job at the local bank is jeopardized because the bank president doesn't approve; the girl's sisters insist that their social life is blighted; and the girl football player finds she can't play football and still be a girl. However, after many riotous mishaps, the play ends happily.

SCIENCE CLUB

Science Club began yearly activities by participating in the carnival with a radio-active isotope hunt. In this concession students searched for various radio-active particles with a geiger counter.

The club also sponsored a fellow club member. Terry Bradbury, in the science fair at Eastern Illinois University in Charleston, where he received a first place rating on his project "The Distillation of Crude Petroleum."

LETTERMAN'S CLUB

The purpose of the Letterman's Cab is to encourage school spirit. The club's membership is composed of boys competing and earning letters in such sports as football, basketball, golf, or track. This spring a newly organized baseball team gave more boys an opportunity for eligibility in the club. The boys could be distinguished by their neat appearance in attractive maroon jackets with white script R's worn on the days of the games.

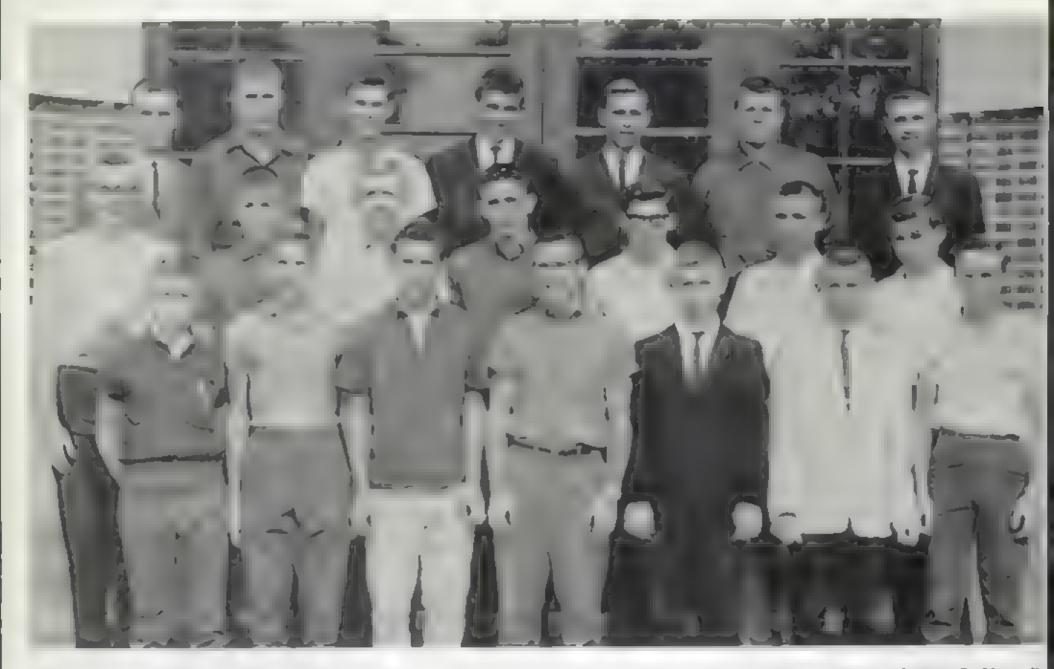

The lettermen were engaged in such fund raising projects as the football and basketball toss at the carnival and the annual Christmas tree sale

KEY CLUB

The twenty-three sophomore, junior, and senior members of the Key Club, under the supervision of Mr. William Clark, successfully fulfilled their motto, "We Build."

The Key Club was involved in many projects this year, one of which was the "Baseball Toss" at the carnival. With the Kiwanis Club, they co-sponsored the Ken Griffin Magic Show. They had a clothing drive and adopted orphans in Japan. Vocational films were purchased by the club for use in the guidance department.

SPANISH CLUB

The two main purposes of the Spanish Club under the sponsorship of Miss Macalene Riegel were to combine pleasure and Spanish.

"Feliz Navidad y Prospero Año Nuevo" was the salutation heard ringing from wall to wall in the cafeteria where the annual Spanish banquet was held January 8. The date designated by Miss Riegel was set as close as possible to January 6 when the Spanish children receive their gifts. A Spanish meal followed by games and a gift exchange composed a very enjoyable evening.

ART CLUB

The Art Club benefited the school as well as the community the past year. The club has as its primary concern interesting other students in art, and affording extra time for the enjoyment of art by interested persons.

The club, under the direction of Mr. Gerald Norris, repainted the nativity scene displayed on the courthouse lawn during the Christmas season. Finishing the busy holiday season, members made decorations for cafeteria tables, decorated the cafeteria tree, and made a display for the walls.

The club sponsored an ice cube tossing contest at the carnival this past year. The money earned enabled the club to purchase pins for the members. The club also gave a painting to the school.

HI-Y

The Hi-Y Club is open to any high school boy who feels he can fulfill the club's purpose, which is "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." The member must also live up to the club's platform of "Caean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship, and clean living."

At the carmival the members sold eider and doughnuts. With the help of Mr. Carl Miller, adviser, the members again sponsored the Easter program. They participated in conferences held at Southern Illinois University and sent their president to the National Hi-Y Conference.

TRI-HI-Y

Instituted at Robinson High School in 1955 and affiliated with the National Hi-Y Fellowship, Tri-Hi-Y is an organization for those girls who wish to incorporate high Christian ideals with extracurricular activities. Tri-Hi-Y's forty-eight members completed an active year under the direction of Mrs. Frank Hunsaker, sponsor. Upholding the slogan, "Pure thoughts, pure words, pure actions," the club held the annual Thanksgiving program, for which Dr. Ernest Dycus, the outside sponsor, presented the message

Near Christmas boxes of fruit, canned food, toys, and useful items awaited attention as members prepared Christmas baskets for needy families. Fund raising projects included popcorn sales at the carnival and a bake sale held in December.

F. H. A.

Can she bake a cherry pie? Does she sew a fine seam, and does she look forward to the time when she can use her talents in creating a home? If she does these thin in it is probable that she is a member of the Future Home makers of America. All ninety members of one of the school's most active clubs contributed hours of planning and preparation for a successful bean supper during the Fall Festival. Eagerly awaited occasions were a Christmas dinner, a skating party, and a hot dog party.

To become further acquainted with the FHA, its members, and its goals, the club and Mrs. Joe Bayless, sponsor, traveled to Flora to participate in the F.H.A. rally, During FHA week a tea, a baby contest, and a district meeting at Altamont were events of particular interest.

Several money raising projects were launched in order to present the school with a memorial to Miss Glenadine Weaver, former sponsor of F.H.A.

In order that they may be the arricultural leaders of tomorrow and may acquire the operation, brotherhood, education, and responsibility necessary for the role, thirty one boys participated in the Future Farmers of America during the year.

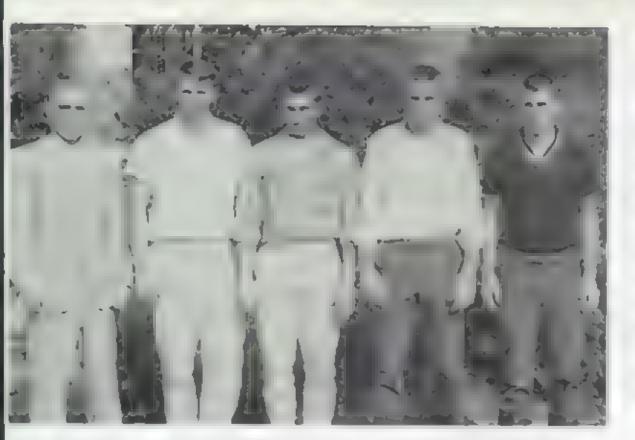

As the year progressed, members enjoyed a parent-son banquet and a skating party held jointly with the F.H.A. The annual pest-killing contest yielded both fun and profit as participants strove to rid their homes and farms of harmful, annoying animals For excitement there was nothing like the overnight fishing trip in May. In June members attended the F.F.A. convention and the state judging contest.

Swinging into full operation early in the fall. sixty-six members of the Civics Club, sponsored by Mr. Glenn Tilton, energetically earned money for a trip to Washington, D. C. Although their main project was working at L. S. Heath and Sons, they also held a bake sale, washed cars, painted fences, cleaned the football field and even cleared out burned houses.

With aching backs and calloused hands forgotten, the Civics Club departed for Washington in early April. They toured the Capitol. Lincoln's Monument, various federal buildings, and historic places around Washington. Bus rides, shopping, theater-going, and a visit with an Illinois senator completed the trip.

FRENCH CLUB

A new club at R.H.S. this year was the French Club, composed of students who are taking or who have taken at least one year of the French language. One of the club's primary objectives is interesting other students in the language and promoting French in our school.

Since the club was new, it was faced with the problems of writing and approving a constitution. Work on this project was completed by the French Club members and Mr. William Clark, their sponsor. The official name of the club is "Entre Nous," meaning confidentially.

Fund-raising activities included the Bastille at the carnival and concessions at a basketball game. With the club's earnings it was decided to purchase various books and magazines for the library.

AMERICAN LEGION AWARDS

The 1963 recipients of the annual American Legion awards were Mary Le McGovern and Duane Skidmore, In order to receive this award, the recipient must need cortein qualifications, these qualifications being outstanding scholastic ability, good citizenship, and cooperation

An a tive member of GAA, Minjorie was vice president of the clab during his senior year. With an excellent record in shorthand and typing, she worked in the selection of fices and was a typist on the ROBINILLO staff. Marjorie was also a member of the Spanish Club.

Duane was a member of Key Club and served on the Student Council for two years. He was the vice president of the Lettermen's Club diazne his senior year. Dame participated in track basketball and football.

ALLISON AWARD

Charles Koopman was chosen to be the recipient of the Lieutenant J.g. Robert C. Allison Award. The Allison Award is presented to a boy showing leadership, courage, and scholarship as did Robert C. Allison, graduate of RHS, in whose honor the award is presented. Allison was killed in active Air Force duty when he crash-landed his jet rather than land on a highway where the lives of others would have been endangered.

Charles participated in basketball and baseball. He served as president of his class, president of Latin Club, and treasurer of Hi-Y his sophomore year; vice president of Key Club his junior year; president of Key Club his senior year.

His junior year Charles was head usher at commencement. An honor student Charles maintained a straight A average for four consecutive years. The Bausch Lomb science award was presented to Charles. He was the recipient of an Illinois State Honorary scholarship.

JUNIORS CREATE ENCHAN

Ordinarily a conglomeration of chicken wire, wall paper, iumber, tissue paper, and angel hair will tend to remain conglomerated. However, with these things, a gymnasium and a treat deal of organization, the junior class constructed a setting for the year's long awaited school event. Much individual preparation was also feverishly completed as the day of May 17, 1963, drew near. Dinner jackets were pressed, last minute shopping was finished, corsages were ordered, and shoes were shined.

Upon entering the fover, visitors to the "Enchanted Garden" found a secluded pool with a large fountain and nearby pine trees. The interior of the gym was a garden surrounded by a long vine-covered brick wall. A large vellow daisy seated the queen and her court. Over all was a low, starry ceiling. The Starlighters of Mattoon provided music as Rosalie Bush was crowned queen of the 1963 prom. The queen's attendants included Sallie Carrow. Shirley Mendenhall, Myla Tennis, and Kay Tilton.

After the prom interested organizations invited promgoers to dancing and refreshments at the Country Club, a movie, and a platter party at the Elks' Club. As weary juniors and seniors started home, all agreed that the evening had been both a pleasant and memorable occasion.

This is the main hall of Robinson High School. On a morning during the last of May, the claimer of laughtry, volung taking students was beard in the hall. The noise descended the stairs and departed the each the front door, leaving the hall in silence. Fach year RHS graduates spread to all parts of the world. Out of the doors of Robin son High School have streamed today's doctors, lawyers, families, teachers, industrial workers, and business ment all active American educes. For the graduates the candle of adolescence has been exting asked, and the many candles of adulthood have been lighted. These candles we trust, will continue to flame brightly as they guide the seniors through long, successful lives.

When school reopens in the fall, the corridor will once again know the vibration of hundreds of feet, the intensity of many varies, and the contrasting, hum of classroom recitations. Its bulletin boards will be cluttered with announ ements and posters, and the trophy cases will gleam with new peach. During the summer the halowill receive a thorough cleaning and a fresh coat of wax; ready to well one the next group of stadents, it lies waiting . . .
